BASSC MISSION

AN AGENCY–UNIVERSITY–FOUNDATION PARTNERSHIP

The Bay Area Social Services Consortium (BASSC) operates as an agency-university-foundation partnership that promotes social service research, training, and policy development. Founded in 1987 in response to interests in public social services shared by county social service agency directors, university deans and directors of social work programs, and local foundations in the San Francisco Bay Area, BASSC has developed the following core purposes and programs:

CORE PURPOSES

- Fostering regional communications and understanding about the changing nature of social services in the public and nonprofit sectors
- Serving as a catalyst for new ideas that have legislative, administrative, public education, and training implications
- Providing a structure for innovative regional programs related to research, training and policy development
- Collaborating to address shared workforce development issues related to pre-service and in-service education

CORE PROGRAMS

- Bi-monthly meetings and an annual retreat to share ideas, assess legislation, and promote regional collaboration between county agencies, universities, and foundations
- A multi-county program of policy and program research on topics selected by the BASSC members
- A multi-county training program related to Executive Development for middle and senior managers and a Bay Area Academy serving the training needs of line and supervisory staff in child welfare and related fields
- A multi-county policy development program that develops and publishes policy reports for opinion leaders and case studies on promising practices for agency staff.

The leadership that guides and sustains BASSC emerges from the active participation of 12 county social service directors, five university deans and directors of social work programs, two foundation representatives, and the BASSC Staff Director along with BASSC staff located at UC Berkeley in the School of Social Welfare (Mack Center on Nonprofit and Public Sector Management in the Human Services) and UC Berkeley Extension.

A Partnership for Executive Development, Practice Research & Policy Implementation
MESSAGE FROM THE BASSC CO-CHAIRS
KATHY GALLAGHER
Director, Contra Costa County Employment & Human Services Department

The formation of the Bay Area Social Services Consortium (BASSC) 30 years ago has proven to be nothing less than visionary. Given the monumental changes we have seen in the field of Human Services over the last three decades, the BASSC partnership has played a significant role in promoting social service research, training, and policy development in Northern California and beyond.

In 1987, the BASSC collaboration brought together human services directors from several Bay Area counties as part of an agency-university-foundation partnership to strengthen public sector social services in the region. BASSC emerged out of the history of increased government involvement in the delivery of social services to address the needs of local communities. Evolving from the War on Poverty and amendments to the Social Security Act in the 1960s, human service practitioners assumed an increasingly prominent role in ensuring that service programs were administered in ways that were more integrated, comprehensive, and accessible.

The BASSC partners built a solid foundation in 1987, and set the course for the counties in the San Francisco Bay Area to effectively deliver human service programs. Societal, cultural, economic and political changes have greatly affected how we provide support for our communities. These changes continue to impact our work as we take steps to influence public policy and set strategy for the future. The era of technological advancement has opened new doors, and our Bay Area human services departments are finding new ways to interface with customers. BASSC offers a collaborative means for human services directors and staff to react to new mandates, changing needs and novel ways to serve our customers.

BASSC began with 12 member counties, our five Bay Area university programs featuring undergraduate and graduate social work education, and the Zellerbach Family Foundation as founding partner. Over the decades, BASSC has created seven policy groups (described elsewhere in this publication) that bring together expert staff from each Bay Area county to further regional goals through a planning and policy framework. BASSC has become a regional entity with an influential voice in the state and around the country.

Given the current political climate and federal and state budget constraints, it is reassuring to know that the founding of BASSC 30 years ago set the stage for county human services to be able to address the extraordinary challenges we face today. The group came together based on principles (as noted in our Mission Statement) that, in my view, have proven to be timeless in keeping our think tank and support group strong and connected in addressing the issues facing the human services.

We may encounter obstacles along the road before us, but we also see great opportunities to overcome them. The early vision of those who partnered to create BASSC enables us to move steadily along that road in a unified manner. I am certain BASSC will leverage its robust agency-university-foundation partnership to continue engaging in dialogue, educating each other on the basis of sound research and practice experience, and continue to influence public policy in the field of human services.
BRIAN SIMMONS
Dean Emeritus, California State University - Monterey Bay

I attended my first BASSC meeting in fall 2001. In the ensuing sixteen years, I have seen many agency directors and many academicians come and go. One of the many remarkable things about BASSC is that despite the relatively frequent turnover, the high level of commitment to thoughtful and innovative policies and practices, informed by both the universities and the counties, has remained absolutely constant. The commitment can be seen in the deliberate and respectful inquiry and debate; the desire for data-driven decision-making; the prioritization of client, community, and system well-being; and the importance of the stewardship of the taxpayer resources. All long-standing BASSC characteristics kept my interest and engagement at a high level for all these years. The recently re-energized focus on common interests in workforce development shared by universities and counties speaks well for BASSC going forward. Our founders, Ed Nathan, Harry Specht, and Dick O’Neil, would be very pleased to see the results of their efforts thirty years later.

REFLECTIONS OF A BASSC FOUNDER
Jim Rydingsword, San Benito County Health and Human Services Agency

The Bay Area Welfare Directors were meeting quarterly for lunch during the 1980s and I participated as Director of Contra Costa County Social Services Agency. It was the era of Governor George Deukmejian and President Ronald Reagan. We held ongoing discussions about issues facing social services in California and explored the impact of these issues on our Bay Area counties. Beginning in 1987, there was much discussion about welfare reform that ultimately resulted in the 1988 Welfare Reform legislation developed under the leadership of Senator Patrick Moynihan of New York. Its provisions included new directions for Child Support, Job Opportunities, Family Support Services and the AFDC amendments, and Demonstration Projects.

It was also in 1987 that I met with others at the UC Berkeley Faculty Club for lunch to discuss the needs of counties for more graduate level social workers and the need for a commitment of schools of social work to address this challenge. The conversation was guided by UC Berkeley Dean Harry Specht who called for the public university system in California to make a commitment to educate more social workers for California county human service agencies as well as publicly-supported nonprofits. The conversation also included Ed Nathan, director of the Zellerbach Family Fund and Dick O’Neill, the director of Santa Clara County Social Services Agency. The vision and passion of Dean Specht was very powerful and helped to promote out-of-the-box thinking. Such thinking took the form of a proposal to seek a Ford Foundation planning grant to develop a statewide strategy to increase the supply of trained social workers in public-supported social service programs. These efforts led to the establishment of the California Social Work Education Center (CalSWEC) in 1990.

The UC Berkeley Faculty Club luncheon planted the seeds for converting the informal quarterly lunch meeting of the Bay Area welfare directors into the formal consortium comprised of county directors, university deans and directors, and foundation representatives. It is the vision that emerged out of this 1987 meeting that we celebrate today with the 30th anniversary of the founding of the Bay Area Social Services Consortium (BASSC).
BASSC HISTORY

Michael J. Austin, BASSC Staff Director

The roots of the Bay Area Social Services Consortium (BASSC) can be traced to people with ideas. For decades, those who have served as directors of county social service agencies throughout the state of California have sought each other out to exchange ideas and find support. In the San Francisco Bay Area, a group of “county welfare directors” met quarterly during the 1970s and 1980s to share ideas over lunch. In 1987, this group formed the Bay Area Social Services Consortium (BASSC) and included Ernie Hirosi (San Mateo) as the convenor, Helen Knutson (Alameda), Dick O’Neil (Santa Clara), Jim Ridingsword (Contra Costa), Ed Sarsfield (San Francisco), and Yolanda Rinaldo (Marin/Sonoma/Santa Clara) who joined in 1989. Among the many topics they explored was the perceived insufficient curriculum attention to public mental health and child welfare issues in local schools of social work. They welcomed the opportunity to talk with the deans of social work programs. Dean Harry Specht of the UC Berkeley School of Social Welfare with the encouragement of Ed Nathan (Executive Director, Zellerbach Family Fund) seized the moment to begin a dialogue between agency administrators and university educators.

Dean Specht had been instrumental in reshaping the mission of the School of Social Welfare in the early 1980s to reflect a commitment to the public social services. In the mid-1980s, he sought out the “county welfare directors” to assist the School in implementing the new mission and began to participate in the quarterly meetings by hosting them on the UC Berkeley campus. By 1987, he had encouraged Ed Nathan, his long-time colleague with extensive contacts among Bay Area agency directors, to join the discussions. Ed had long sought to promote the improvement of social services through increased attention to service integration between public and nonprofit social service organizations. As a result of the foundation’s involvement, the first BASSC grant of $7500 from the Zellerbach Family Fund was provided to promote regional training activities and Bart Grossman (Director of Fieldwork at the UC Berkeley School of Social Welfare) became the first part-time staff director of BASSC (1987-1990).

Based on these training activities (child welfare risk assessment, homelessness, HIV infants, etc.), BASSC members became interested in the potential for securing federal training funds to attract MSW students to the field of child welfare. As a result, the idea for a statewide consortium of schools of social work and county social service agencies took hold. With the help of a social worker (John Lanihan) on the staff of the Ford Foundation (where there was interest in training social workers for implementing the federal 1988 Family Support Act), a Ford Foundation grant provided the seed money sought by the BASSC directors to launch CalSWEC, the California Social Work Education Center at UC Berkeley in 1990. Bart Grossman became its first director. While BASSC continued to provide regional training programs with staff assistance from Susan Laughlin at UC Berkeley Extension.

By 1992, BASSC was searching for a new focus, following its success with regional training events. Harry Specht and Ed Nathan had been successful in convincing Dick O’Neil (Santa Clara) to become the Chair of BASSC. At the same time, Mike Austin had just joined the UC Berkeley faculty as Professor and Chair of the Management and Planning track in the MSW program. He joined Ed, Dick, and Harry in developing a new approach to BASSC, away from quarterly lunch meeting and towards bi-monthly day-long sessions in the form of an Executive Think Tank. BASSC membership grew from the primarily large counties to include the smaller North Bay and South Bay counties along with the deans of other schools of social work that included San Jose State, San Francisco State, California State University–Monterey Bay, and California State University–East Bay.

Many different ideas began to emerge as part of the Think Tank, including the need to recruit more women and minorities into senior management positions. Based on a decision to “grow their own talent,” the BASSC Executive Development Program was launched in 1994 under the leadership and support of Stan Weisner and Barbara Weiss at UC Berkeley Extension. This innovative training program is now twenty four years old with over 600 graduates.

As the Think Tank format continued, other new ideas emerged. Based on a shared concern about the lack of in-house research capabilities in county social service agencies, the BASSC Research Response Team was launched in 1995 within the UC Berkeley Center for Social Services Research under the leadership of Dr. Sheryl Goldberg and Dr. Pamela Choice. A series of exploratory short-term studies, primarily in the field of child welfare, were staffed by MSW students. This innovative research program is now over twenty years old and currently operates under the leadership of Sarah Carnochan as BASSC Research Director.

By 1996, Will Lightbourne (San Francisco) as BASSC Chair and Maureen Borland (San Mateo) as Vice Chair helped to focus the BASSC Think Tank on the profusion of policy issues leading up to and including the passage of federal welfare reform legislation. The multiple challenges facing the county directors led to a continuous stream of BASSC policy reports. One of the most comprehensive BASSC reports, Social Welfare at a Crossroads, was the first BASSC attempt to educate opinion leaders and elected officials involved in the development of California’s CalWORKs welfare reform legislation. The flood of staff training challenges associated with implementing welfare reform led to the formation of a BASSC policy group of senior human resources and training managers under the leadership of Maureen Borland and Madelyn Martin (San Mateo County). This group continues to engage in ongoing efforts to transform public social service agencies into learning organizations, including recent efforts to build regional systems to share online training content across counties.

Preceding the BASSC Human Resources Committee was the Bay Area Children’s Committee which had been formed in the previous decade as a regional component of the statewide Children’s Committee that operated under the auspices of the California Welfare Directors Association (CWDA). By 1998, the leadership of BASSC had expanded its attention to child welfare by launching the new Bay Area Academy with substantial Title IVE funding. After nearly thirty years, the Bay Area Academy training programs have grown substantially under the guidance of BASSC through its Training Advisory Board and the administrative guidance of Fresno State University School of Social Work (Dave Foster, Director and Chris Mathias, Assistant Director). One of the early efforts of the Bay Area Children’s Committee, under the leadership of Stuart Oppenheim and Dana Fabella was the preparation of the 2002 report for the Governor’s Commission on Child Welfare entitled Promising Bay Area Practices for the Redesign of Child Welfare Services.
Based on the 1997 successful launch of the BASSC policy group related to Staff Development and Human Resources, another BASSC policy group was formed in 1999 under the leadership of Rodger Lum and Linda Kretz (Alameda County) to focus on adult and aging services. The first result of this collaborative effort was the BASSC publication, Riding the Wave: Charting the Course of Adult and Aging Services into the Next Decade (2000). The BASSC policy group development continued during the first five years of implementing CalWORKs (1998-2003), with the establishment of the BASSC Welfare-to-Work policy group under the leadership of John Cullen and Wendy Therrian (Contra Costa County).

The arrival of the new millennium in 2000 provided BASSC with an opportunity to look beyond regional, state, and national boundaries in order to explore a more global perspective on public social services. Following the commissioning of reports on the implementation of welfare reform in Great Britain, BASSC began a series of video-conferences with local authority social service directors in England that focused on welfare reform implementation, child welfare services and adult/aging services. While the initial focus was on foster care, the future agenda includes adult/aging services. The national and international reach of BASSC was further enhanced by the launching of its first website which is now supported by the Mack Center on Nonprofit and Public Sector Management in the Human Services established in 2006. Sarah Carnochan joined the Mack Center staff in 2010 and helped develop a parallel consortium of nonprofit agencies that partnered with the counties to deliver social services called the Bay Area Network of Nonprofit Human Service Agencies (BANNHSA).

Given this brief 30 year history, it is clear that BASSC represents a unique partnership of county human service agencies, universities, and local foundations. Over the past three decades, a wide array of county agency directors, university deans and directors and foundation representatives have played a key role in the success of the Bay Area Social Services Consortium. As we celebrate the 30th Anniversary of BASSC, we salute the founding members of this pioneering intermediary organization that brings together the three important sectors of county social service agencies, universities, and foundations. As both a think tank and support group, BASSC has become a dynamic regional partnership that explores and supports collaboration and provides a venue where organizational leaders can share ideas and create innovative programs and practices.

BASSC COMMITTEES
The Bay Area Human Resource Committee (BAHRC) was launched in 1997 to respond to the staff development and personnel systems associated with implementing Welfare Reform. It soon became apparent to BAHRC participants that the organizational culture of county agencies/departments had a significant impact on the design and implementation of effective training programs beyond welfare to work programs. The Committee began to explore the literature on learning organizations and consulted with experts as a way of preparing to make recommendations for systemic changes to traditional staff development programs and practices. Since 1997 BAHRC has continued to focus on the implementation and continuous improvement of BASSC member agencies as learning organizations.

The learning organization principles and practices continue to be the top priority for BAHRC as members continuously share information, explore different ways of resolving common issues, learn from each other and develop innovations in the area of human resources. The current priorities focus on the regional sharing of resources based on adopting and learning to use a common software platform (Storyline).
Launched in the midst of Welfare Reform implementation during the late 1990s, the focus of this Think Tank has been on implementing the CalWORKs program. In recent years, the focus has been on subsidized employment, workforce participation rates, workforce development programs, and family stabilization.

In collaboration with the BASSC Research Response Team, numerous reports have been developed including a book on Changing Welfare Services: Case Studies of Local Welfare Reform Programs emerging out of the early years of incentive funding for caseload reduction and innovative practices in Bay Area counties.
BASSC BAY AREA ADULT AND AGING COMMITTEE

The BASSC Bay Area Adult and Aging Committee launched in 1999 focuses its Think Tank discussions on policies and values related to improving adult and aging services. The core values include fostering consumer choice and independence, integrating service systems, and promoting cost benefits within a flexible service system to support consumer independence. Its first major BASSC report, Riding the Wave (2000) provided a foundation for exploring current policy issues. Over the past several years, the focus of discussion has been on the policy issues related to In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS). IHSS and long-term care (LTC) policies and programs for low-income noninstitutionalized LTC populations.

In collaboration with the BASSC Research Response Team, several reports were developed related to elder abuse prevention (2002), risk assessment in adult protective services (2009), and long-term care policy (2010).

BASSC BAY AREA REGIONAL CHILDREN'S SERVICES COMMITTEE

Since 1990, the Bay Area Regional Children’s Services Committee has been meeting as a regional subcommittee of the County Welfare Directors Association Children’s Services Committee and a committee of the Bay Area Social Services Consortium to share program expertise and contribute to the development and implementation of Child Welfare Services policies and programs to improve the lives of vulnerable children throughout the Bay Area and California.

Over the past 2+ decades, discussions of the Bay Area Committee included the challenges facing foster family agency programs, Inter-county Protocol for the coordination of services to families who migrate throughout our region, and collaboration with the BASSC Research Response Team to improve Child Welfare practices. This collaboration included the study of the education of foster youth (2001), promising Bay Area child welfare practices (2002), and the Child Welfare and the Courts Project (2002). Subsequent collaboration involved the publication (2008) of structured literature reviews (disproportionality, risk assessment, family assessment, child/youth well-being assessment, measuring outcomes, parent education programs, substance abuse treatment programs), national performance indicators project (2013) (preventing the recurrence of maltreatment, achieving timely reunification, preventing re-entry to foster care, achieving timely adoption, achieving exits to permanency for children in long term care, achieving placement stability, using performance measures to manage child welfare outcomes), and the case record data-mining project (2017).
MISSION

Launched in 2014 under the leadership of Daniel Kaplan (SF Human Services Department), colleagues in the area of finance and administration were invited to form a Think Tank of issues shared by the counties. Using centrally-located bi-monthly meetings members have the opportunity to raise issues of common concern as well as present concerns to invite peer consultation and advice.

The following are among the topics that helped to launch the committee and continue to provide a framework for discussion:

- The IHSS MOU
- ACA Financial Challenges
- Forecasting Methodologies
- Administrative Revenue Simulation Methodologies
- Benefits/Risks of the IV-E Waiver
- Realignment Revenue Management/Forecasting
- Information Technology Strategic Planning
- The Roles of Finance in CCP, IHSS Negotiations and other groups/functions
- Revenue Leveraging/Maximization Strategies
- MediCAL Administrative Budget Methodology
Launched in 2012 under the leadership of Dan Kelly (SF) and Jim Cunniff (Alameda), this BASSC think tank and support group engages in bi-monthly meetings to explore areas of common interest. One of the most valuable aspects of these meetings is the check-in, hearing from other counties about what they are involved in, getting new ideas, asking questions, and sharing information. The range of topics in the early days of the committee included: 1) Performance based contracting and the use of longitudinal data sets (CW), 2) Public Housing and the use of vouchers for homeless families coming into the child welfare system, 3) Supporting leadership changes related to different divisions in the department (CW, CalWORKS, Adult/Aging).
The Bay Area Academy offers training courses, conferences, coaching, implementation support, technical assistance and consultation services to public child welfare and adult services in the greater San Francisco Bay Area social service community. Funded through state and local partnerships, the Bay Area Academy promotes safety, permanency, well being and whole person care in public social services.

BASSC RESEARCH RESPONSE TEAM

The BASSC Research Response Team, housed in the Center for Social Services Research at the University of California School of Social Welfare was established in 1995 to respond rapidly to the emerging research needs of Bay Area county social service agencies for current information about their changing environments. Exploratory research projects are undertaken in close collaboration with agency administrators and program staff and include structured literature reviews, large scale surveys, case studies and case record data-mining. Research projects completed over the past several decades are listed below.

- Legislative Issues and Political Context
- Working with CBOs and Unions
- Peer Learning, Coaching and Support
- Leadership Development

MODULE TWO
ON CORE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

HUMAN SERVICES VISION

A TOOL FOR THOUGHT LEADERS AS CATALYSTS FOR CHANGE

THE EVER-CHANGING CONTEXT:
Trends Past and Future

• Complexity of managing with fluid public funding
• Use of technology to manage and improve organizational operations
• Need for interaction between human services, health and behavioral health services, and criminal justice services
• Changes in community-agency relations and increased need for inter-agency collaboration
• Need to strengthen agency-university partnership

THE EVOLVING PROCESS:
Improving the human condition by making the transition from “Doing more with less” to “Doing more differently”

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

• Promoting community well-being and impact assessment with a focus on child and family well-being as well as adult and aging well-being
• Creating a more holistic and integrated safety net to support self-sufficiency in our geographic pockets of poverty in an effort to reduce poverty across the life span
• Redefining the relationship with community nonprofit partner agencies, especially related to service experimentation

PRACTICE INITIATIVES

• Using measures of service outcomes to promote evidence-informed practice and the ongoing development of learning organizations
• Incorporating the health determinants of social well-being into current social service practices
• Increasing the role of client voice at all levels of organizational decision-making including the use of participatory action research
• Integrating university faculty into agency operations and strengthening fieldwork education and applied research in support of inter-disciplinary and evidence-informed practice
• Using technology (e-learning and dashboards) to expand staff knowledge and skills as a way of serving as local human service policy experts
